

50 YEARS: REFLECT, REFRESH, RENEW

ALASKA NATIVE CUSTOMARY ART SHOW

OFFICIAL RULES & REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations were developed for the benefit of the artist and customers alike. They incorporate both the Alaska Federation of Natives and the Carlson Center rules.

Please read carefully and keep this page for future reference:

- Alaska Natives/American Indians who are enrolled in the State of Alaska's Silver Hand Program or have a copy of their Bureau of Indian Affairs tribal enrollment are eligible to participate. New artists must submit a copy with the application. Returning artists are responsible for ensuring AFN has a copy on file.
- Each artist, including household members, is limited to one table space.
- One 6-foot table and two chairs are contracted between the artist and AFN. Space may not be sublet or shared without prior approval of an authorized AFN staff member.
- Artists agree that only items constructed by the artist or immediate family members will be sold at their table. Artists also agree that no food or beverage will be sold.
- A minimum of 50% payment is required to hold a reservation, with the remaining 50% due and received by close of business on September 23, 2016. Payment will only be accepted with an application form.
- Artists agree that their designated space will be staffed at all times during show hours.
- Artists will receive a receipt, set up information, sale hours, floor plan and table number in early October 2016.
- Each artist shall indemnify, defend, save and hold the Alaska Federation of Natives and the Carlson Center harmless from any claim, lawsuit or liability, including costs and reasonable attorney's fees allegedly arising from loss or stolen items, damage or injury to persons or property occurring in the course of the space rental during the Alaska Native Customary Art Show, October 20-22, 2016.
- Any artist found in violation of these rules and regulations must immediately surrender their table space and remove their wares, art, and craft works from the premises.
- No refunds will be issued for cancelled tables after September 23, 2016.
- Artists will notify AFN immediately if they are unable to attend.
